Rick Hieronimus

Rick Heironimus is in his third year of teaching high school juniors and seniors the FF Level II / EMT-Basic curriculum's at Tolles Career & Technical Center in Plain City, Ohio. He also serves as EMS Program Coordinator for the adult EMT-Basic program at Tolles. From 2001 to 2003, Rick served as one of the EMS Coordinators for the Ohio Department of Public Safety's Division of EMS, conducting random CE audits, advising and recommending approval of all of the approved CE training sites, as well as other educational based programming.

Rick has been involved in health care all of his adult life and began his health care career as an Educational Specialist at a hospital in Springfield, Ohio – where he continues to live with his wife, Lenora, of 27 years. He was trained and certified as an EMT-Basic in 1989, and as an EMT-Paramedic in 1997.

Rick understands the educational system well, as he is currently pursuing his 5th college degree, a BS in Technical Education. His other degrees stem from commercial art photography, radio and television broadcasting, human resource management, criminal justice, as well as certifications in the firefighting and EMS arenas.

Carolyn S. Vining

Carolyn Vining has a BS in Criminal Justice, an Assoc. of Technical Studies Paramedic, and is a REMT-P and EMSI. She is also a Field Service Instructor for Paramedics at UC Clermont College.

Carolyn became a basic EMT in 1985, Fire Fighter in 1986, an Intermediate in 1987, a CPR Instructor in 1989, EMS Instructor in 1990, and Paramedic in 1996. She also has instructor titles in ACLS, BTLS, AMLS, and GEMS.

EMS has been a large part of Carolyn's life, and she still functions in the field as a Paramedic for up to 48 hours a month.

Carolyn is currently working toward a Master's in Health Education and is considering entering the PhD Program.

Anyone attending the OAEMS conference may attend instructor track sessions without registering through OEMTIA. If you are not registering for OAEMS conference, registering with us in advance will help us be prepared with enough lunches and handouts. Any questions may be directed to 419-358-0814 (Rick or Meri).
